YOU MAY PEEK INN

By DAVE MACK
(David J. Marrow)

Underneath' The Lockford Moon—
He's going away to join the Army. He has a whole year to go. He's going away to join the Army. He's the sweetest guy, we know.

Good-bye to you, Dear Martin. And our best wishes too. You're a long, long way from Stamford. But, we're rooting for you.
KAY MAHIN...

Kay Mahn dedicated the above song to Martin Lash Jr. at a farewell party at Piccadilly Rest—by the employee of Yale & Towne Mfg. Co., Room 115. Entertainment was grand. Patsy Pirro and petite Helen Pappas wiggled out a fancy, classy jitterbug dance. The Gang presented Martin with a beautiful wrist watch. Speakers: Harry O'Neil, May Potts (no parts, wiseguy) Fanny Broccollo and Marie Shean . . . The Mack Vitt's are shopping for pins and diapers . . . (He's a former High School All-State gridiron star and she's lovely Dolly Prince) . . .

Harry Neighbor, Bridgeport...

...I columnist is proud to announce that sixty-per-cent of his next week's salary will be deposited in the bank, the first thing in the morning . . . Lucille Lang and Ed. Ronzanski are having tea in the morn and cawfee in the evening... Frankie Mays and Lillian Corso are shopping for a wedding band.... Evelyn Dornflinger and Billy Ackerman shove off for that pool of Matrimony on April 19th . . . Ditto Louise Livolsi-Buddy Vanderheyden. It will rain that day . . . Art Bon, this department's protegee clicked with a bang at the Aviglianese Dance with Smlin' Johnny Esposito and Dotty Swift doing the vocals. (Pod'n the chest expansion) . . . One wag writes in; "You've been patting yourself so much on the back that you're getting hunchback." . . . "Fueyouu!"

At the James Manning dinner, Seated at our table, Dr. C. Zaccardo (He leaves with National Guards pretty soon) Mike Pia, Frank J. Daley, and Ernie Mallozzi . . . Ernie Siefert stops to chat . . . Here Comes Jim Manning. All in all it was a swell party. Andy Marzik kept annoying several people. But who's Andy Marzik?? . . . Steve Belloise dropped in to see Mickey Bird at the Stillwater Demmie Club the other eve. The mitt slinger took a gander at Joe Ganino's beak. Belloise chirped; oughta quit the ring". P. S. 'Gans' Ganino never had a battle in his life. He might have one now, after he reads this (Body-guard Mickey Bird please note) . . . George Haines claims that he shoulda knowned Audrey Paksley years ago . . . and Pauline Rose and Bob Seidl bellow that just two dreams met . . . (D'ja ever see a dream walking?) . . . "One at a time, I'll take the little guy with the glasses in the corner, first".

Here's what Sir Cupid with his tired darts has to deal with. . . Angelina Rondano and George Symanko . . . Louis Ofiero and Rose Russo . . . Frank Murphy and Louise Burns . . . Ida Buchetta and Frank Presti . . . Shirley Raymond and Ray Fricks . . . Rose Franzi and Mickey Montange . . . Vivian Lannon and Benny Mead . . . Murt DeWitt and Lois Gangley . . . Tony Faugno presents at the Womans Club every Fridée, Satadee and Sundee quite a bang of entertainment in his Old Time Movie . . . By all means get a load of Lon Chaney, Charlie Chaplin and you'll perhaps agree with this writer that the actors of by-gone years can never be replaced. Fridée eve, Tony Faugno presents an old time Amateur program that will prove interesting. Don't throw peanut shells on the floor and listen to the Piano-player.

Jimmy Greco, the west side lad who recently rescued a wire-haired pup from the icy waters of the Rippowam River will soon join McCall's magazine . . . Eleanor Wood and Ruben Curran are sing the Woodpecker song together . . .

CONFIDENTIALLY

Stamford's basket-ball fans will be able to see Buck Celotto in action with the Villanova Freshman, on March 8 at the Y. M. C. A. . . . Got a load of that beef-steak dinner the other night at the All-Stamford Club. The affair was in honor of A. J. Donahue, a fine fellow if there ever was one . . . watched Frank Daly's son playing the drums, one night at Ye Tavern. The boy is a bit of an alright . . . Wonder what the women will say now that Eddie Slade of Green-which, has joined the army . . . The following poem, which I found in an old scrap-book, seems to apply to many people today . . .

WHO'S WHO IN CHILDREN'S CLASSICS

Who was the puppet,
Carved out of wood,
Who played pranks, 'til he found
That "it pays to be good"?
