Belloise, Amazed by Possibilities of Pipe Organ, Challenges Pietro Yon to Game of Kangaroo Golf

Mr. Yon's studio at Carnegie Hall, after Mr. Belloise's amazement of all the possibilities of the modern pipe organ and Mr. Yon's seeking knowledge on all the details and experience of boxing.

Following a further exchange of amenities the boxer "suddenly asked Mr. Yon how he became interested to invent kangaroo golf from playing the organ and composing," to which the organist replied in detail, without, however, explaining what kangaroo golf is. He then asked Belloise what he thought of the game. Belloise's reply was as follows:

"I tried it in all my spare time while training and I love it. It's a game that's a sure knockout. I enlisted in the United States Navy, but after my return I should like to have you accept my challenge and try to get the championship from you in the nationwide tournament which I understand will take place this year."

Belloise's statement implies that Mr. Yon, besides his musical attainments, is the national kangaroo golf champion. He accepted the challenge with alacrity. Continues, the press release says:

THE MAESTRO APPROVES

"Go to it," said, the Maestro, "I will help you and any one else to acquaint themselves with this novel game and pastime."
